Greetings to each of you! Another school year is recorded history at P. H. S. Your commencement is at hand. If you have done your noblest -- that's success. Permit me to suggest five personality qualities absolutely essential to your future achievement: ambition, initiative, perseverance, determination, and a passion for knowledge. Our America needs your best.

WE LEARN TO GOVERN OURSELVES

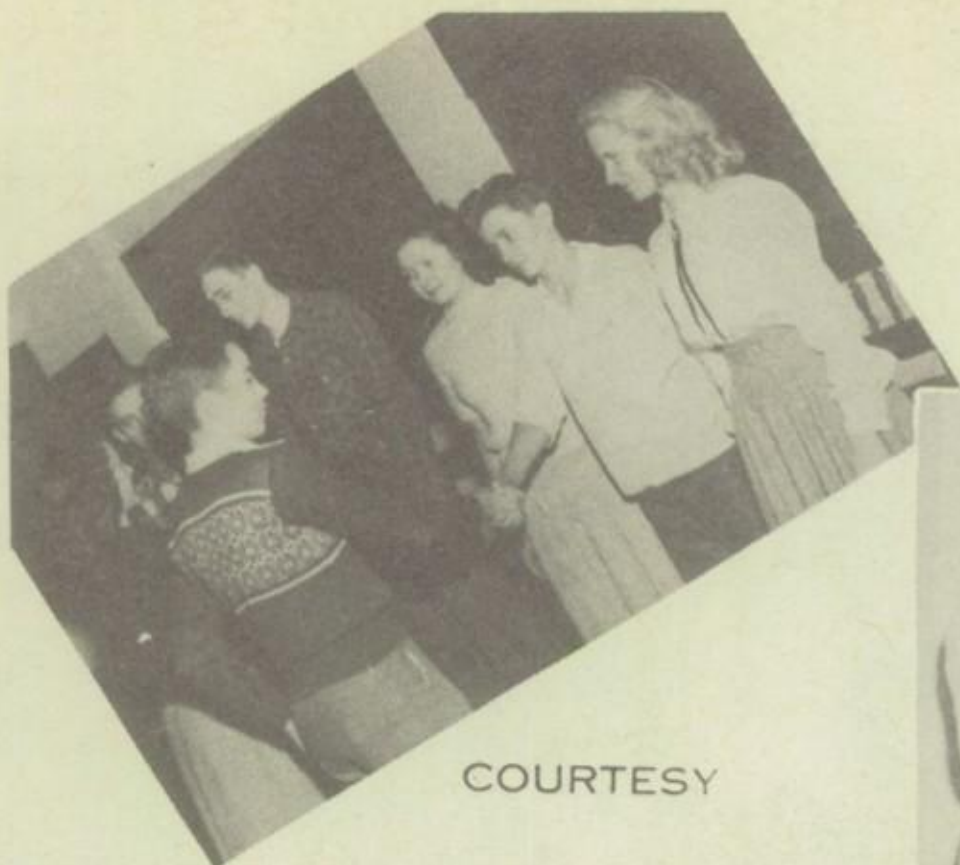

The Student Council is a vital part of Pittsburg High School. It consists of three officers chosen in the all-school election held each Fall and a representative from each home room. Regular meetings are held at Activity Periods on Tuesdays.

Opportunities for pupil-participation in school affairs are numerous. Four committees—Social, Activities, Publicity and Courtesy—share in making school life more enjoyable for all.

The present officers are Douglas Story, President; Richard Slinkman, Vice-President; Judy Veatch, Secretary-Treasurer; and Miss Madge Waltz, Sponsor.

On October 23 the students of Pittsburg Senior High School elected Judy Veatch as the 1947 Football Queen with Virginia Sullivan and Mary Louise Canny as her attendants. Candidates were nominated by members of the football squad. Then on October 31 during the half of the Dragons game with Coffeyville she was crowned by Marvin White, acting captain of the squad that night. The queen and her attendants entered the field in convertibles and, after driving around the track, were escorted to the platform by the President of the Student Council and two cheerleaders. Impressive music by the high school band was a background for the ceremony. A dance in the gymnasium which was presided over by the royalty followed the game.

One hundred thirty girls enjoyed the many varied Y-Teen activities this year. The eight committees, their sponsors, chairmen, and officers made this year one of success.

Six girls attended the annual Kansas district Y. W. C. A. conference held at Parsons. A minimum award was presented to the girls for the Pittsburg organization.

Elected officers for the year were Mitzi Angwin, president; Helen Peterson, vice-president; Marion Beaver, secretary; and Betsy Thomas, treasurer.

The social committee and chairman, Joan Greef, had charge of each party that members enjoyed. They were responsible for games, prizes, and refreshments. Money for these activities came from the finance committee and chairman, Betsy Thomas. These two groups met together with their sponsors, Miss Sara Stephens.

Helen Peterson, membership chairman, had her committee go to work during the first few weeks of school to induce girls to join the organization. This committee is also in charge each year of the drawing of names for the big-little sister celebration. Their meetings were held in the room of their sponsor, Miss Jessie Bailey. Miss Bailey also was sponsor of the worship committee. This group is held responsible each year for an Easter service for the entire school body. Lois Griffith handled this committee as chairman.

The program committee, under the direction of Barbara Biddle, was responsible for the varied and unusual programs presented during the school year. Certain themes must be carried out at least once each year by various committees. Barbara and her able committee kept close check on these and saw that each committee had an assembly.

They met with Miss Margaret Oliver, supervisor, as did the music committee. Norma Johnson, chairman, not only taught her committee songs, but had her committee teaching songs to other groups. This proved very helpful to the organization when a song fest was held. Appointed accompanists for the committee were Gussie Rouse and Diane Walker.

Publicity committeemen wrote and presented several playlets to illustrate Y-teen themes. Posters were always ready by this group when needed to advertise coming program or party. Members wrote a Y-Teen story for the Booster each week. They met with the service committee during the year and chairmen Lois Rae Taylor and Donna Ross, in the room of their sponsor, Miss Florence White. The service committee was in charge of many worth while projects. These included selling candy at athletic events, encouraging pen pal correspondence, and donating to the organization, CARE. All these projects, although under the supervision of the service committee, were aided by all members.

Each and every girl took part in at least one assembly for the year. Committees were assigned several programs to carry out. Activities included several Y-Teen and Hi-Y mixers, a Big-Little Sister party, and a Mother-Daughter tea.

Hi-Y always represents a fine cross-section of leadership of the entire school and strive at all times to "create, maintain and extend high standards of Christian character in home, school and community." We welcome any boys of school into our groups.

The Senior High group is divided into the following chapters: Bunny Carlson-David New, Joe Dance-B. V. Edworthy, and Jimmie Welch-J. L. Hutchinson, their presidents being Edward Grandle, Douglas Story, and Richard Lance. Sponsors are Mr. John Biddle, Mr. Elton Cline, and Mr. Claude I. Huffman. The Senior High Advisory Council is composed of Rev. Gordan Thompson, Chairman of the Ministerial Alliance; Mr. Allen Gardner, local Y.M.C.A.; Mr. Clyde Hartford, State Boys' organizer; Mr. John Hutchinson, Principal Emeritus; Principal Finis M. Green, chairman of advisors; and Mr. Claude I. Huffman, chairman of sponsors.

Our club showed a slight gain in membership this year. We operated under the chapter plan, three individual chapter meeting followed monthly by a general meeting of all chapters together. Hi-Y presidents rotated in responsibility of leadership.

Roosevelt Junior High, with three chapters, had for its sponsors Mr. George Frederickson, Mr. Frank Hopkins and Mr. Earl Ludlum, who served as sponsor chairman and director of basketball candy and pop sales for the Camp Wood fund. Senior Hi-Y sold candy and pop at football games, and Y-Teens took a similar number of basketball games this year.

Lakeside Junior High had three chapters sponsored by Mr. Wesley Cunningham, Mr. Jack Tryon, and Mr. Fred Lampton. Mr. John England, principal of Lakeside was their advisor.

Both Lakeside and Senior High sent a good delegation to the Girard district meeting in the Fall. In the March 10 meeting at Parsons, Pittsburg was represented by 17 boys and sponsors from junior and senior high groups. Mr. George Frederickson and Mr. John Biddle sponsored the Parsons all day session.

Several social events of the year were held with Y-Teens. During the second week of school two hundred students enjoyed a Mixer held on Hutchinson Field. In December the Hi-Y members honored Y-Teens with a party in the gymnasium. Then later in the year the Hi-Y members were guests of Y-Teens in a Spring Mixer.

Some of the special programs during the year included a Thanksgiving Assembly with Rev. Harold R. Karnes of the United Presbyterian Church as speaker. Music was furnished by the high school chorus. Y-Teens and Hi-Y met together in a special Christmas meeting of carol singing.

Inner Circle, the Hi-Y prayer group, met daily throughout the school year. Chapters rotated by the week in responsibility of leadership. These meetings were held in the Hi-Y room.

OPEN HOUSE

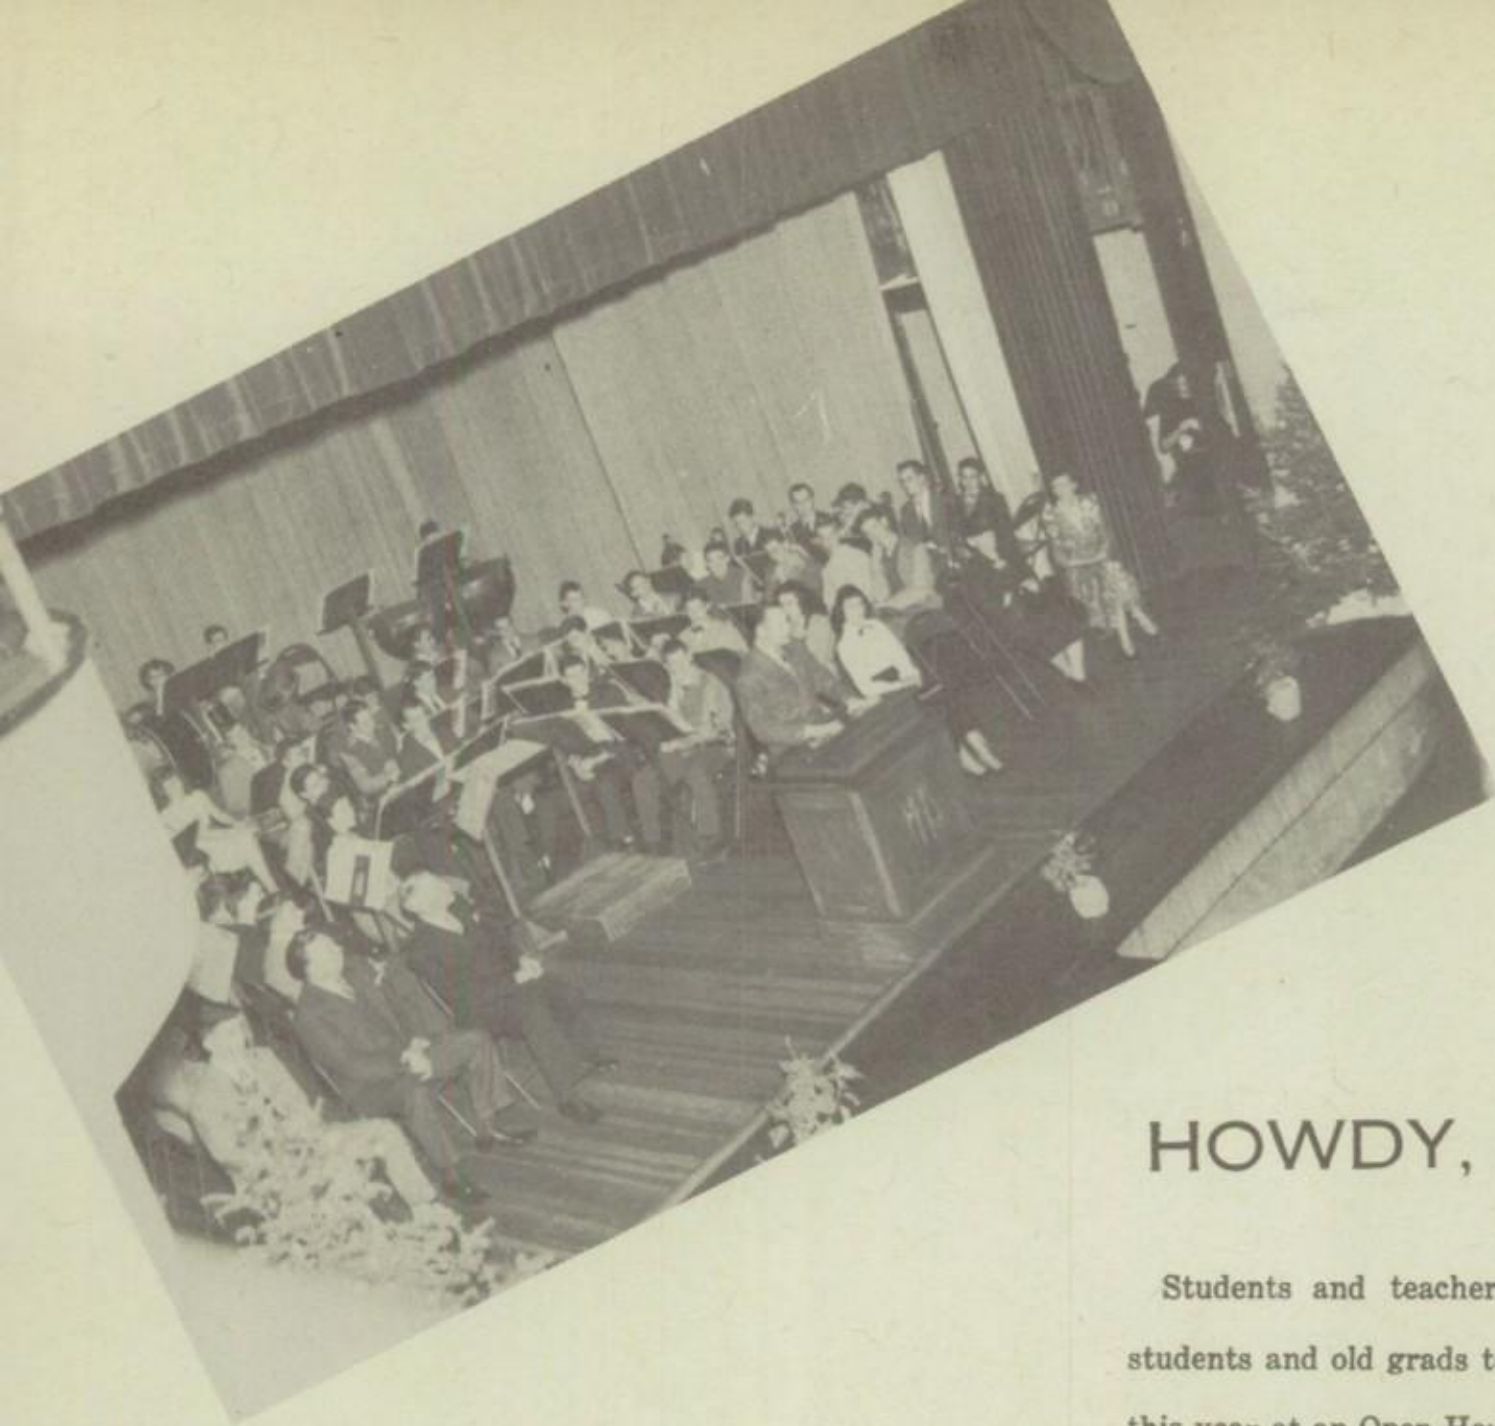

NOVEMBER 11, 1947

HELLO, MOM AND DAD!

On the night of November 11, 1947, Pittsburgh Senior High School was host to parents and friends at Open House. Classrooms were open for inspection and a short auditorium program was given. Much interest was shown in the new lights.

HOWDY, GRADS!

Students and teachers welcomed former students and old grads to the halls of P.H.S. this year at an Open House in the after noon. It began with a program in the auditorium with past Student Council president Joe Begando, Richard Slinkman, Mr. Green, past principal Mr. Hutchinsor, and Miss Effie Farner as speakers. A dance in the gymnasium followed.

P.H.S. has full right to be proud of the Millermen this year. Including all games played, they won 18 while losing only 4. In the All S.E.K. team Story, Gibson, and White made the first team with McVickers on the second team and Thornberry in honorable mention. Gibson placed in honorable mention in All State. After winning the S.E.K. Championship, the Dragons defeated Ft. Scott and Parsons to win the AA Regional Tournament here in Pittsburg. Then they went to the State Tournament in Topeka. After defeating Ark City in a real thriller 39-37, they lost to the tall Newton Railroaders 49-29.
